

Face Time

16

More than 300 participants attended the 12th Annual Lawyers Strike Against Child Abuse Bowling Tournament. The event raised more than $22,000 for the Family Resource Center of South Florida. Pictured below are Charlie Ans, Kai Jacobs, Michelle McClaskey, John Bustard, Janelle Herrera and James Terpening. At right, Sharon Liebman, Ed King, Robert Fernandez, Oren Wunderman and Dennis Nowak.

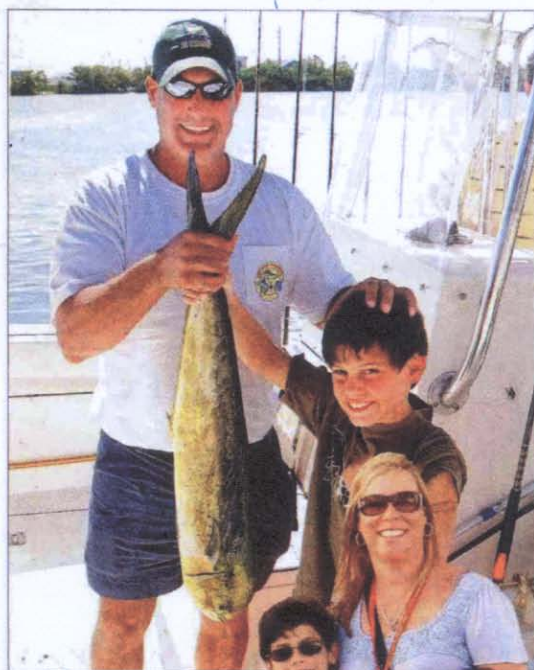

Got events that showcase your company or organization beyond the workplace? Please let us know. Only digital photos are accepted. Contact Associate Editor Eileen Cukier at 954) 949-7518 or via e-mail at ecukier@bizjournals.com.

SOUTH FLORIDA BUSINESS JOURNAL | JULY 25-31, 2008

The West Boca Chamber of Commerce held a breakfast meeting at Boca Dunes Country Club, featuring a debate among candidates for a state House seat and a demonstration of the new voting machines. Pictured at top, Beth Chatoff, Shari Glatter and Vickie Landis. Above, Dr. Arthur Anderson and chamber Chairman Tom Kruse.

The 20th Shell Key West Challenge attracted nearly 150 people who raised more than $110,000 for the Diabetes Research Institute. Above, John Sanchez and son Matthew Sanchez, who has Type 1 diabetes, show off their catch. At right, Matthew, his mother Crystal Blaylock and brother Cameron Sanchez.

